CERTIFICATE OF ANALYSIS. "I hereby certify that I have submitte! to an exhaustive Unemical Analysis a sample of Old Scotch Whisky received from Mr. Robert Brown, Glasgow, and from the results obtained I can testify with confidence to its great purity of composition and high-class character. "I find it to be remarkably free from admixture with Fusel Oil and all other objectionable contamination, a sufficient proof as to its high degree of maturity and dietetic value. But while this is the case with regard to routine work, the

Something like an echo of Mr. Brzdon's remarks is given in the last tradecircular issued Connor" and "Love's Golden Dream" in fulsetto. holo a lded another point by taking advanby Mr. BIELFELD, of Shanghai. "Year after Mr. Wilkins was recal effor his recitation and tage of Lowson's weak putting. Chinese shipchandlers, etc., are supplying the foreign men-of-war and shipping, our households and hetels with 'foreign goods and stores. The large old foreign stores have with but a few exceptions had to cave in to the keen native competitor. Foreign jewellers, watchmakers. printers, tailors, even engineering establishments, have a hard fight for existence with the Chinese." This, we imagine, rather an exaggerated picture; certainly it would not be true of Hongkong, where the foreign stores have not tallen on such evil times as Mr. BIEL-YELD represents to be the case in Shanghai. The competition of the native shops is keenly felt, no doubt, especially in such lines as You may remember that at the time it was necessary to get more money. Every effort was made, to raise the conditions as the provious issue, but without success. You must bear in mind the position of the Company at the time. The contractor had refused to go on with the building without then than it ultimately did; the shell of the Hotel would probably have fotched less than the value of the bricks in it. The directors had to decide whether they should face a loss not only on the outside building operations but on the Hotel itself. Contracts had been entered into not only for the completion of the building would ask you as business men whether if any of you had been on the board of directors you would The death-rate per 1,000 per anoun for the have felt justified (after entering into such repany) in repudiating them with the certainty that the debenture bolders would lose the whole of their money, and that a great number of persons who had trusted to our respectability and good faith in executing these orders would enffer a heavy loss by the Company being wound up without giving the Hotel a chance. Under these circumstances I consulted the Company's solicitors in London, and through them took the advice of eminent companies' counsel, and upon this advice I acted throughout for the benefit to the best of my ability of all concerned.
